New Testament Scholar Presents the Message of the Bible and Relevance Today in ‘God Speaks’
New Book from Expert on ‘The Bible’ TV Mini-Series

(NASHVILLE, TN) August 21, 2015 – While the Bible is one of the most far-reaching, impactful books in history, it is often misquoted by popular media and misunderstood in today’s tech savvy world. In his new book God Speaks: What He Says, What He Means (Worthy Publishing, August 2015), New Testament Scholar Dr. Craig Evans presents a fresh perspective on how to read and understand the Bible and why its message is still relevant and transformative in today’s world.

“No matter how familiar or unfamiliar you are with the Bible, God Speaks will bring its timeless truth alive as you view it with fresh eyes and apply its restorative power to your life,” says Dr. Evans.

Dr. Evans, a consultant on Mark Burnett and Roma Downey’s blockbuster miniseries “The Bible,” unfolds Scripture with compelling clarity. By taking readers on a journey through each part of the Bible, God Speaks will equip readers to provide answers to skeptics’ questions about the Bible’s true message.

“God Speaks’ clearly and concisely presents the message and relevance of the Bible in a way that all readers will enjoy and benefit from,” writes TV and Film producers Mark Burnett and Roma Downey (“The Bible” TV mini-series; “Son of God” film) in the book’s Foreword.

“God Speaks’ is insightful and easy to understand. It will help you answer today’s tough questions rooted deep in Christianity’s history,” says Jay Sekulow, Chief Counsel for the American Center for Law and Justice.

Craig A. Evans, Ph.D. is Payzant Distinguished Professor of New Testament at Acadia Divinity College and Acadia University. Prior to Acadia, he taught for twenty-one years at Trinity Western University, where he founded the Dead Sea Scrolls Institute. He has served as editor-in-chief of the Bulletin for Biblical Research and published over five hundred scholarly books, articles, and reviews. Professor Evans has lectured in universities and museums around the world and appeared in news programs and documentaries on BBC, Discovery Channel, History Channel, National Geographic Channel, CBS Sunday Morning, and Dateline NBC. Professor Evans and his wife, Ginny, live in Kentville, Nova Scotia, and have two grown daughters and a grandson.
